Coming together as a family is more important than ever, so why don't you grab some popcorn and a blanket, head to the sofa, and throw a good old fashioned movie night!

This pack will contain everything you need to set up a fun film night. We've included a film suggestion, along with information about the age rating and ratings info. This pack also includes a fun, film-related activity section - and some discussion points at the end, so when the credits roll, you can have a discussion with your kids about what you've all just seen. This pack is for children over the age of 12 but we think it's especially suited for older children.

This pack will set you up to watch Wonder Woman 1984.

What you'll need:

- Popcorn, or another yummy movie snack, what's your family's favourite?
- A blanket, slipper socks, and PJs! You're at home on your sofa, so you might as well get comfy!
- Turn the lights down low, or even better turn them off completely to get that authentic cinema experience.
- Ask your family to design their own tickets, and hand them over to you at the door. They just need to include the film title, the age rating and ratings info, and the price that you'd like to charge.
- You can also ask your children to draw a poster advertising the film night - including a drawing of the main character, the age rating and ratings info. Don't forget to advertise what time you're going to start your movie night!

What do parents need to know?

Here's a round up of everything you need to know before you press play and watch the film with your children. It includes a short synopsis for the film as well as the long ratings info that you can find on our website. This tells you all the category defining moments in the film.

About the age rating:

This film is rated 12 and unlike U and PG, this age rating restricts who can buy or rent home media. 12 films deal with more complicated storylines and difficult ideas that may be too challenging for younger children. They may also contain stronger or more intense scenes of violence or horror that could upset younger viewers. 12 ratings are used on video-on-demand films and DVDs. No one under 12 may buy or rent a 12-rated DVD. A 12 rating on a video-on-demand film also means that the content and tone of the film is likely to be more suitable for a child aged 12 or over to watch at home or on a tablet.

Synopsis

Wonder Woman 1984 (2020) is a US action fantasy in which a superhero must save the world from an avaricious tycoon.

Ratings Info:

Threat and Horror

A drunken man is threatening toward a lone woman in a park at night. Later, he cowers at her feet as she beats him. A robber dangles his child hostage from a height, threatening to drop it. A gang of warriors, armed with swords and daggers, surround an Amazon and hack at her armour. There is threat of nuclear conflict.

Violence

There are fight sequences in which blades, guns and fists are used, occasionally with bloody aftermath detail. There is a brief scene of domestic abuse in which a man slaps his wife and shouts at her aggressively.

Other issues include mild sex references and discrimination. There is use of mild bad language ('bitch', 'bastard', 'shit'), as well as milder terms such as 'God', 'hell' and 'damn'. There is a brief visual reference to the Holocaust.

Wonder Woman's outfit is iconic, use this space to draw your own superhero outfit or you could also use it to draw a movie poster advertising your film night! Don't forget to use bright colours, and be as creative as you like! We'd love to see your creation, so your parents can take a photo of it and tag the BBFC in it on social media:

For the whole family: Now it's time to talk about the film

Did you enjoy the film? How did it make you feel? Were there any bits of the story that you didn't like? Did you learn anything, if so what?

Do you agree with the BBFC age rating? Would you add or remove anything? Is it helpful to know about what is in a film before you watch it?

What makes Diana a role model - and how do you think she inspires girls and children in the real world? What qualities does she have that makes her a superhero? Can you think of any other female superheroes?

What do you think of the fight scenes in the film - do you think the fact that the violence is very stylised detracts from the impact? What would the film be like if the fight scenes were more realistic? Does Diana being a superhero set any expectations about the violence in this film?

How is Wonder Woman different to other male superheroes, like Batman or Superman? How is she the same?

Have you seen the first Wonder Woman film? How is this film different? Do you think seeing the first films sets your expectations for this film - and if so, what are they? How does this film live up to expectations? How does it differ?

Wonder Woman 1984 is set in the 1980s. Apart from the fashion, what are the main differences you can spot compared to the time we live in now? Do you think it is better to live in the 1980s, or in the 2020s? Why? What progress can you see today compared to what is shown in the film?

The first Wonder Woman comic was published in 1941. Why do you think it took so long for her to get her own film? What bits of the film did you think were different to other superhero films, and what bits were the same?

Diana is a very empathic character. Why do you think this is? What impact does she have on other characters in the film? How does she turn them around to her way of thinking?

If you had a superhero power, what would it be and why?
